

Township Two-Step Zoning and the Subdivision Process

Filled boxes are official steps in the process, non-filled boxes are steps where the other entities are engaged but not as a direct part of their regulations.

This is a generalized visual representation of how township Planned codes operate with the subdivision process.

